Art Unit: 3621

DETAILED ACTION

1. Regarding the status of the claims in the instant application, the Examiner has found a new prior art. The Examiner is obliged to apply the newly found prior art. Thus, the finality of the prior Office action has been withdrawn and a new rejection follows. The Examiner regrets the delayed process of the application. Accordingly, claims 1-23 remain pending.

2. Claims 1-23 remain pending.

ALLOWABLE SUBJECT MATTER

3. Claims 18-23 are allowed over the prior art of record.

Claim Objections

4. Claims 9-17 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 (a) as being unpatentable over Blasko, John P. (U.S. 2001/0049620) in view of Walker et al (U.S. Pat. No. 6,249,772).

As per claims 1-8 Blasko substantially discloses a system/method for transaction profiling in a privacy-protected targeting manner, wherein the transaction generally refers to an intentional action by a user (which is readable as Applicant's claimed invention wherein said a method for enabling targeted information retrieval while protecting consumer privacy) comprising:

providing a plurality of elements of information (see., abstract, specifically target objects, [0014], [0024], [0094], [0132]);

specifying a negotiant function designed to accept a plurality of elements of data associated an information request as output, said information request designating at least one element of information to present to the consumer from among a plurality of elements of information (see., abstract, [0014], [0024], [0094], [0132]); and distributing the negotiant function (see., abstract, [0014], [0024], [0094], [0132]). Blasko fails to explicitly disclose the step of distributing the negotiation function to a consumer for execution by said consumer. However, the Examiner has made an updated search and found new prior art (Walker et al 772"). Walker discloses a system/method wherein a consumer negotiates a price for a selected product, the consumer is assured that he will actually receive the product (see., abstract, col 10, lines 35-45). It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the privacy-protected targeting system of Blasko by including the limitation detailed above as taught by Walker because this would allow consumer to significantly affect the price of the products of the manufacturer.

RESPONSE TO ARGUMENTS

7. Applicant's arguments filed on 1/16/2007 have been fully considered but they moot in view of new ground (s) of rejection.
